MESH CHAIR SERIES

Human engineering design,multiple functions,comfortable sitting experience,competitive prices

B-038 SERIES

The elegant overall design, the meticulous craftsmanship, the strict quality control, creates a comfortable and elegant environment for people

YJ-187 SERIES

The ergonomic mesh backrest design, the soft and supportive seat cushion, the smooth-rolling casters, and the adjustable height mechanism, combine to provide a comfortable and efficient seating experience for daily work and study.

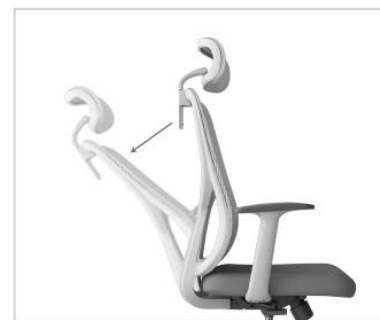

YJ-188 SERIES

The ergonomic mesh backrest, paired with a supportive headrest (on the left model) and comfortable padded seat, ensures breathability and comfort. Sturdy five-star bases with smooth-rolling casters add stability and mobility, making these chairs ideal for long hours of work or relaxation.

BUO SERIES

Following the principles of ergonomics, it scientifically supports your back and waist, disperses pressure, and relieves discomfort caused by sitting for a long time, allowing you to maintain a good posture and comfort in any occasion.

BU SERIES

This office chair blends modern aesthetics with functional design, featuring a striking textured mesh backrest that combines breathability with visual appeal.

CW SERIES

Life is marvelous because of the simple andfashionable designs,the vigorous lines and themultiple color matching schemes

GE SERIES

Life is marvelous because of the simple andfashionable designs,the vigorous lines and themultiple color matching schemes

SYS SERIES

The beautiful and elegant appearance shows the combination of fashion and taste, and is suitable for various office and living environments. The segmented back design not only enhances the visual layering of the chair, but also effectively disperses the pressure on the back, providing excellent support and comfort, allowing you to feel the ultimate relaxation even when sitting for a long time.

A vibrant blend of comfort and contemporary style, this office chair radiates warmth with its soft terracotta upholstery. The chair's design marries playful energy with thoughtful ergonomics: its segmented backrest, divided into three plush, curved cushions, cradles the spine, while the elevated headrest adds a touch of indulgent support.
